Discovering Diverse Landscape, Wildlife & Cultures

Dear Friends,

It is indeed a great pleasure to share with you this unique journey by private jet around Africa and the Indian Ocean in 2017.

The collection of destinations on this itinerary is particularly suited to travel by private jet, as we could not accomplish this route using regularly scheduled aircraft. These are all places that we thought would appeal to those who have already traveled to Africa, as well as those who may be interested in making their first visit to the continent. We wing from one country to another, relaxed in spacious leather club seats in our custom-fitted Private Jet and delight in the service from our hand-selected attentive crew.

On this unforgettable journey, we'll visit several islands in the Seychelles, the remote Anjajavy Nature Reserve in Madagascar, Selous Game Reserve in Tanzania, Chobe National Park in Botswana, and then spend the last few days in the exotic city of Marrakech, Morocco. Encounter unusual and endemic fauna and flora, majestic animals in their natural habitat, pristine landscapes, diverse cultures, and distinctive architecture.

With a maximum of 15 travelers, we are able to stay in villas and suites in world renowned lodges and hotels. All along the way, our Lakani Tour Managers will be on hand to ensure plenty of pampering, enriching experiences, and fabulous cuisine. This once-in-a-lifetime journey is not to be missed. Please join us.

Depart the idyllic Praslin aboard the Lakani Private Jet and fly south to Anjajavy, Madagascar.

The fourth largest island in the world is situated off the southeast coast of Africa. Archeological evidence shows that the island has been inhabited since 2000 BC. Austronesian peoples arrived on outrigger canoes from Borneo, followed by migrants from East Africa. It was ruled as the Kingdom of Madagascar until its collapse in 1897 when it was absorbed into the French colonial empire. The island gained independence in 1960 and is now a constitutional democracy.

Having developed in isolation, the island nation is famous for its unique wildlife and is considered a biodiversity hotspot. The resort is ideally located to visit much of the fauna that Madagascar is famous for. Travel through Moramba Bay and the private nature reserve located just behind the resort. See many species of the world famous lemurs, iguanas, birds of paradise, kingfishers, hummingbirds, ibis, eagles, and flying foxes.

Siwandu Camp

Leave the Indian Ocean islands behind as you depart on the Lakani Private Jet for Tanzania, East Africa.

Your destination is Selous Game Reserve located in the south of Tanzania and a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its wildlife diversity and undisturbed nature. It is the largest reserve in Africa, four times larger than the Serengeti, and is home to over 2,100 species of plants, 400 varieties of birds, more than half of Tanzania's elephant population, and its buffalos exceed 120,000. It is likely that there are more hippos and lions here than anywhere else in Africa. Also notable is the huge population of rare wild dogs.

Siwandu is located on the shores of Lake Nzerakera, which is part of the Rufiji River system. It is perfectly positioned to give you an awesome wildlife viewing experience in the Selous Game Reserve.

Begin each day with tea or coffee served in your luxury tent before breakfast. Discover the prolific wildlife on a morning game drive accompanied by an expert driver guide, or perhaps you would prefer to take a guided walk with an armed ranger and learn about the complex eco-system and feel totally immersed in nature. Or you could explore the lake or river by boat, weaving amongst the pods of hippo and watching the game coming to drink. Return to camp for a freshly prepared lunch. Then take a dip in the pool or rest up with a book. After a cup of tea and cakes, you are ready for the second safari of the day. You may choose to follow the river or track game by land. Back at camp, enjoy sundowners and dinner and share your day's highlights with fellow travelers.

Belmond Savute Elephant Camp

Bid farewell to the camp in the Tanzanian wilderness and board your Private Jet bound for Chobe, Botswana for a different safari experience.

Arriving in Maun, a light charter aircraft will be waiting to whisk you off to your luxury tented camp in Chobe National Park. The park is best known for its spectacular concentration of elephants, which have the distinction of being the largest in body size. Chobe is divided into four different eco systems; one of them being the Savute marsh in the western part of the park. Unpredictable wet and dry cycles affect the landscape and wildlife. Animals are present during all seasons here, and at times their number can be staggering. Savute is famous for its predators, particularly its lion and spotted hyena populations. Your Belmond lodge is comprised of only 12 luxury tents, each housed on raised wooden platforms and shaded by a traditional African thatched roof. Get settled in your air-conditioned tent and prepare for fabulous days ahead.

Set out each morning in four-wheel drive safari vehicles with your expert tracker-guide. With the abundance of game in the park, it is possible to spot lion prides up to 40 strong, as well as see nearly all the other major game, such as giraffe, elephant, zebra, impala, tsessebe, roan, sable, wildebeest, kudu, buffalo, waterbuck, warthog, eland, hyena, jackal, bat-eared fox, leopard, cheetah, and possibly the endangered wild dog. Savute is also known for its superb birding, as well as being home to some very rare rock paintings drawn by the early San Bushmen, who once inhabited the area.

Return to camp for lunch and then head out later in the afternoon for another wildlife viewing opportunity.

In the evenings, dine on delicious cuisine under the stunning African sky around a traditional boma (campfire) or enjoy your dining experience of delicious cuisine created by skilled chefs in a covered dining area, surrounded by wildlife.

MOROCCAN TEA CULTURE

Tea occupies a very important place in Moroccan culture and is considered an art form. Morocco is one of the world's largest tea importers. Moroccan-style mint tea is commonly served throughout North Africa. Tea is served not only with meals but all throughout the day, and it is especially a drink of hospitality. While Moroccan women tend to cook the meals, tea is traditionally a man's affair, prepared by the head of the family. Tea is almost always offered to guests, and it is impolite to refuse it.
