

Fiji, an archipelago of more than 300 islands in the Southern Hemisphere of the Pacific Ocean. It's famed for rugged landscapes, palm-lined beaches and coral reefs with clear lagoons. It is a paradise for snorkeling, diving, and other beach activities, as well as tropical trekking. It's a wonderful destination for water sports enthusiasts and hikers as well as for couples seeking a romantic vacation or honeymoon or families wanting fun in the sun. Fiji is well-known for its friendly people and casual atmosphere.

Lakani World Tours can create a travel itinerary best suited for you – depending on your time, interests, and budget. Some of the more popular islands are:

Viti Levu - The island also offers a variety of resorts (budget to luxury) as well as some tropical treks and the renowned Garden of the Sleeping Giant - a vast collection of more than 2000 varieties of magnificent orchids.

The Coral Coast - on the southwest side, protected from onshore swells by a fringing reef, with a mix of white sand and coral beaches. Most beaches offer calm swimming conditions for families with young children while others are strictly for keen surfers. The town of Sigatoka offers a bustling market with foods, souvenirs, and handicrafts, as well as Hindu temples, mosques and Indian shops.

Denarau - A small separate island connected to Viti Levu by a short bridge, and just 20 minutes from the airport. It has well-respected international golf resorts.

Suva - the capital port city with British colonial architecture. It is a popular day-trip to discover Fiji's history and culture.

The Mamanuca Islands – a volcanic archipelago of about 20 islands just a short boat ride (or seaplane) from Nandi. Stay in Fiji's only overwater bures at Likuliku.

Castaway Island, an island of the Mamanuca Group, is a private resort island features sandy beaches & hilly areas offering scenic views.

Mana Island - Small, remote island with aqua water & white-sand beaches lined with palm trees, plus an airport.

The Yasawas Islands - a string of islands with great sailing, diving, and snorkeling, as well as beaches, villages, and a wide variety of resorts. They are accessible by boat or seaplane.

Vanua Levu - Fiji's second largest island, offers great diving (Jacques Cousteau documented its underwater world).

Taveuni - the garden island with the natural beauty of a lush forest, waterfalls, national park forests, and accommodation in keeping with a natural paradise.

Waya Island - boasts terrific hikes over forest-clad volcanic hills with gorgeous views from the summit, particularly if timed to coincide with sunrise or sunset.
