

The Republic of Korea is the southern part of the Korean Peninsula with a population of 51 million people within 39,000 square miles of diverse landscapes of mountains, valleys, narrow and broad coastal plains, river basins, and rolling hills. With four distinct seasons, the ideal time for touring is in spring and fall. You may wish to catch the cherry blossoms in April or fall foliage in October-November.

The Three Kingdoms of Korea – Gogoseon, Silla and Balhae – were unified in the 7th century and then ruled by two major dynasties until the Korean Empire of the 20th century was annexed into the Empire of Japan in 1910. Japanese rule concluded with the end of World War II and Korea was divided into two zones which ultimately became the Republic of Korea and North Korea.

South Korea is a highly developed country with the world's tenth largest economy. It has notably one of the fastest internet connection speeds and an excellent high-speed railway network. The country is famous around the world for its pop culture, especially in music.
