Redefining the Classic European Tour

Dear Travelers,

I am delighted to share with you our new Unusual Europe Journey by Private Jet for just 15 guests beginning September 1, 2024. Discover a selection of well-known and rarely visited locations all on one two-week trip that is only possible via private jet, as the direct commercial service between these cities is non-existent. Delve into history and architecture, magnificent landmarks, incredible countryside landscapes, scenic coastlines and much more.

Arrive in Berlin, the capital of Germany, a world-class city for its museums and architecture. Here you will also have a day with a choice of sightseeing – either a wonderful excursion to elegant Sanssouci Palace and its beautiful surrounding park in Potsdam, or a private shopping expedition in Berlin with an expert shopper. Then drive to Dresden for a visit before boarding the Lakani Private Jet for your flight to Bristol Airport and the nearby historic city of Bath, where you'll see the Roman Baths, taste the water from the natural springs, and journey into the Cotswolds to see its charming villages. Continue aboard our Private Jet to Turin, Italy, to view the Chapel of the Holy Shroud, visit the historic cellars of the Barolo wine region, and learn about the history of the car at the National Automobile Museum. Take the Private Jet to the Mediterranean island of Corsica and tour Napoleon's birthplace en route to Tunis. Next stop is Tunis, and the celebrated archaeological site of Carthage. The finale is in the fascinating city of Istanbul, where you visit the iconic landmarks of Hagia Sophia and the Blue Mosque, admire Ottoman palaces, and even walk along the route of "007" atop the Grand Bazaar!

The suite accommodation especially chosen for this trip will place you in exactly the right location for the sights and landmarks of the city – in fact some are landmarks in themselves. The hotel descriptions are found in the pages ahead, but a little preview of locations will put you next to the Brandenburg Gate, in the Royal Crescent, and in a luxury hotel in the heart of Istanbul's Old City.

Experience unforgettable sightseeing, indulge in fabulous cuisine, enjoy private events and cultural performances. Of course, the comfort and convenience of traveling on a private jet is matched with a schedule that leaves much more time for discovering each destination. Your expert Lakani Tour Manager and Operations Director takes care of your every need, leaving you worry-free to simply enjoy the journey. After all, you deserve it!

We look forward to having you join us on this memorable sojourn around Europe.

The adjacent Grand Pump Room has been the social heart of Bath for over 200 years and is featured in books and films, including novels by Jane Austen. Across the street is the splendid Bath Abbey, considered an excellent example of Perpendicular Gothic Architecture.

Take a walk across the picturesque Pulteney Bridge over the River Avon and note the shops that are built on both sides of the bridge in Palladian style. Stroll through nearby Parade Gardens. Visit the Royal Crescent, a stately Georgian building that has been home to many notable residents throughout its history. Step inside one of the residences for a private tour of the interior.

Drive out of the city into the scenic countryside to some of the loveliest villages and towns in the Cotswolds. TUNIS, TUNISIA
TUE, WED & THU SEP 10, 11 & 12 (Cont'd)
Four Seasons Hotel Tunis

Enjoy a full-day excursion to Carthage and Sidi Bou Said. Carthage was founded by the Phoenicians in 814 BC, and the earliest settlements of Punic Carthage can still be seen on Byrsa Hill. The most remarkable early remains are the two basins of the Punic Ports, evidence of the Carthaginian's mastery of the sea. Another important site of pre-roman Carthage is the Tophet, a burial ground and sanctuary of the Punic deities Tanit and Baal.

The vibrant interior of Sidi Bou Said town with the sky-blue and whitewashed color scheme is reminiscent of Santorini and Mykonos in the Greek Aegean. The hues were started by the French musicologist Rodolphe d'Erlanger who plastered the stucco walls of his home with the endearing tones in the 20s, and his palatial mansion at the Ennejma Ezzahra is now a museum to his legacy. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before returning to your resort for some leisure time.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY

FRI, SAT & SUN SEP 13, 14 & 15

Four Seasons Hotel Istanbul at Sultanahmet

Board the Lakani private jet for your final journey to Istanbul, enjoying lunch en route. Arrive and transfer to your luxury suites in the heart of the Old City. Arrive at the dock of the Feriye Palace and delight in the tasting menu of its Michelin recommended restaurant.

Discover the rich history of Istanbul on a walking tour of the Old City, also known as the Sultanahmet District. Visit the Hagia Sophia, built in the 6th century for Justinian the Great. It was an Eastern Orthodox church until 1453 when it became a mosque. In 1935, Ataturk converted the building into a museum and restoration revealed mosaics not seen in 500 years. It remains one of the greatest examples of Byzantine architecture. Stroll across the square to the iconic 17th century Blue Mosque. Admire the stunning blue Iznik tiles adorning the interior that give the mosque its name. Tour the Ibrahim Pasha Palace, which houses an excellent collection of Turkish and Islamic arts. After lunch, walk through the 500-year-old Grand Bazaar, home to 4,000 shops. Then, visit the rooftop where James Bond rode a motorcycle in the filming of "Skyfall" and see incredible views.

Explore more of Istanbul's highlights beginning with a visit to the Topkapi Palace, built for Sultan Mehmed the Conqueror in the 1400's. Visit the Harem and Treasury quarters of the palace complex now part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Istanbul.

Drive through the Eurasia Tunnel under the Bosphorus to the Beylerbeyi Palace, a 19th century Ottoman Royal Family residence that still retains its original interior.
